

Your Visit to Westlands Entertainment Venue

BSO On Your Doorstep

From the Hebrides to Padstow Relaxed Performance

3-4pm, Saturday 4 March 2023

*Ballroom, Westlands Entertainment Venue
Westbourne Close, Yeovil
Somerset BA20 2DD*

1. Westlands Entertainment Centre has one entrance.
2. If you need to buy a ticket, the Box Office is straight ahead inside the entrance.
3. The foyer has a bar with drinks and snacks, and a seating area. There are toilets in the foyer and off the Ballroom.

4.The concert will be in the Ballroom. There will be sofas and seats to sit on, and some beanbags on the floor.

5.You can use your e-ticket or printed ticket to find your seat. It will have the show, time and seat number on it.

6.The stewards will be wearing black and white clothes. They can help you get to your seat, and will help you if you need anything or have a question.

7.When the concert starts the lights will go a little darker but they will stay on.

8.The audience will clap when the concert starts and between the musical pieces. You are allowed to join in.

9. The music will be performed by 14 musicians from Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra, who will be conducted by Dougie Scarfe.

10. During the concert our presenter, Sam, will tell you about the music that will be played and introduce you to the musicians. You are free to move about, dance, and make noise during the concert.

11. There is no break in the performance but the doors will remain open and you can leave the Ballroom at any point. There will be a chill out area in the foyer if you want to go somewhere quiet.

12. At the end of the performance people may clap loudly. You can join in, or if you don't like the noise you can cover your ears.

13. When the concert has finished, the lights will come back on and you will leave the Ballroom. There will be other people leaving too. It may be crowded and noisy.

We hope you enjoy the concert!
